

THE GARDEN (REMIX)

Central Live

VERSE 1

In a garden full of broken branches
Full of painful circumstances
Can You heal me from this damage
Cause You make beauty out of ashes
I tried my best to find the answers
Went through hell but wanted Heaven
And though I don't deserve forgiveness
You give more than second chances

CHORUS

Don't lose hope
Don't let go
It's gonna, gonna grow again
It's gonna, gonna grow
So just hold on
It won't be long
It's gonna, gonna grow again
This garden's gonna grow again

You're putting pieces back together
From all the places I was scattered
Now that You and I are finally tethered
I'm gonna bear the fruit that matters

CHORUS

So don't lose hope
Don't let go
It's gonna, gonna grow again
It's gonna, gonna grow again
Just hold on
It won't be long
It's gonna, gonna grow again
This garden's gonna grow again

BRIDGE

You are the vine, we are the branches
Here comes the rain, here comes the harvest
Pour out praise
'Cause this garden's growing, growing
You are the vine, we are the branches
